

Hi and thanks for looking at this short resume!

I have extensive experience in musical theatre from 1995 to 2015, primarily in lead roles, some serious, some comedic but almost always with singing.

I am an accomplished singer in the Baritone to Lyrical Tenor range and in April 2026, undertook a 4 concert tour of China and have sung with the like of Russell Morris, Jim Keays, Darryl Cotton, Mitch Tambo, Katie Noonan and Dami Im so aren't shy at all....although just an ordinary footy and horse-racing loving bloke who likes to grasp opportunities when they present.

Versatility is my middle name and am bit of a Chameleon, being labelled a SNAY (Sensitive New Age Yobbo) by women in the mixed Choir I was in.

I can be a bit of a clown and a stirrer BUT in my almost 33 years working for Defence, was Security Officer for a $2B project, personal escort for a Rear Admiral and held a Secret clearance so can be very serious when required.

With my Mullet hairstyle and personalty, I have caught the eye (albeit briefly) of the Director of films Mr Irrelevant, Empire City and Shiver, as well as featuring in an upcoming (hopefully) AFL advertisement and with a bit of luck, will also catch your eye!

Cheers

Rick
